2026 Christmas Court Series - FAQs

What is the Christmas Court Series?
The Christmas Court series is our seasonal entertainment series featuring premium, one-of-a-kind and high-end musical performances and live entertainment directly surrounding our spectacular holiday decor pieces. The performances will take place every Friday, Saturday and Sunday from November 13 to December 20 with additional performances on Monday, December 21 and Tuesday, December 22.

Are the performances free to watch, or do I need to buy tickets?
All Christmas Court Series live performances are 100% free for all shoppers and visitors. No tickets or advance reservations are required.

Where can shoppers find show schedules and live show countdowns?
Shoppers can scan QR codes on digital directory boards for live schedule updates or visit the CF Chinook Centre website, News & Events page for the full schedule.

What kind of performances can we expect to see?
The series features a variety of premium, live musical acts, seasonal carolers, ballet performances, and featured local talent.

Is there seating available, or is it standing room only?
Limited public seating is provided near the stage areas. Open viewing is available around the perimeter stanchions on a first-come, first-served basis.

Can I take photos or videos of the performance?
Absolutely! Guests are encouraged to take personal photos and videos of the live shows and share on social media. Please tag @cfchinookcentre on your social post!

Are there giveaways available?
Yes! As a special surprise for our guests, there are limited giveaways planned for each performance.

Is Santa performing during these shows, or is he in a different spot?
The Visits with Santa experience is located at the main Santa Set on Level 1 (near Zara and H&M). Santa Ticket Details: Santa visits require a booked ticket. Please check online or at Guest Services for Santa reservation availability.
