Who will the instructor be?

Local artist Emmy Tran will be our instructor for the event.

Emmy Tran (She/They) is a self-taught visual artist based in Toronto. Her art is a creative response to her lived experiences, centering community, queer/sapphic joy, and sex positivity. She specialises in acrylic paint, and her signature style frequently explores the human form using vibrant colours.

Born and raised Vietnam, Emmy immigrated to Canada in 2017 in the pursuit of liberated creative expression. She dedicates her work to elevating voices that are often missing in visual arts and uses her platform to fill in representation gaps for her 2SLGBTQIA+ and BIPOC communities.

What will we be painting?

Emmy will lead guests in creating a colourful, Pride-themed painting for you to take home. You are welcome to follow along exactly as Emmy instructs, or take some creative liberties to put your own twist on your masterpiece.

What paints will be used?

All paints will be acrylic. Acrylic paint is easy to clean off hands, fabric and surfaces. But we do recommend wearing clothes you don't mind getting dirty.

What food will be served?

A range of food platters will be provided by Mercato for you to enjoy. Vegan and gluten-free options will be available.
