Executive Summary

The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disability Act, 2005 (the “AODA”) is a provincial statute that outlines the requirements for developing, implementing, and mandating accessibility standards in order to achieve accessibility for persons with disabilities with respect to goods, services, facilities, accommodation, employment, buildings, structures, and premises.

The AODA will achieve this aim by developing, implementing and regulating Accessibility Standards that will guide the principles and requirements of creating accessibility in the following areas:

- customer service
- information and communications
- transportation
- built environment / design of public spaces
- employment

The Accessibility for Ontarians with Disability Act, 2005 (the “AODA”) is a provincial statute that outlines the requirements for developing, implementing, and mandating accessibility standards in order to achieve accessibility for persons with disabilities with respect to goods, services, facilities, accommodation, employment, buildings, structures, and premises.

16 York

Accessibility Policy

1.0 Policy – Purpose and Scope

This policy updates 16 York existing Accessible Customer Service Policy. This policy implements the requirements of both the Accessible Customer Service Standard and the Integrated Accessibility Standards (Information and Communication, Employment, Transportation, Design of Public Spaces), under the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005 (AODA) and O. Reg. 191/11

2.0 Definitions

“Disability” means:

- (a) any degree of physical disability, infirmity, malformation or disfigurement that is caused by bodily injury, birth defect or illness and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes diabetes mellitus, epilepsy, a brain injury, any degree of paralysis, amputation, lack of physical coordination, blindness, or visual impediment, deafness or hearing impediment, muteness or speech impediment, or physical reliance on a guide dog or other animal or on a wheelchair or other remedial appliance or device,
- (b) a condition of mental impairment or a developmental disability,
- (c) a learning disability, or a dysfunction in one or more of the processes involved in understanding or using symbols or spoken language,
- (d) a mental disorder, or
- (e) an injury or disability for which benefits were claimed or received under the insurance plan established under the Workplace Safety and Insurance Act, 1997.

The above includes disabilities of different severity, visible as well as non-visible disabilities, and disabilities the effects of which may come and go.

Information about any person’s disability is personal and private and must be treated confidentially.

3.0 16 York Commitment to Accessibility

In fulfilling our mission, 16 York always strives to provide its goods and services in a way that respects the dignity and independence of people with disabilities. 16 York is committed to giving people with disabilities the same opportunity or reasonable alternative to access our goods and services and allowing them to benefit from the same or similar services, in the same place and in a similar way as other visitors.

It is the policy of 16 York to promote accessibility for people with disabilities based upon the core principles of dignity, independence, inclusion, integration, responsiveness, and equality of opportunity.

16 York is committed to compliance with AODA and its accessibility standards. We shall provide accessibility and accommodation for persons with disabilities through AODA's customer service standard, integrated accessibility standard and all other standards as they are developed, and in accordance with the requirements of the Ontario Human Rights Code.

16 York is committed to excellence in serving all customers, including people with disabilities, and shall carry out its functions and responsibilities in compliance with AODA's Accessibility Standards for Customer Service and Integrated Accessibility Standards as follows:

4.0 Accessible Customer Service Policy

4.1 Communicating with People with Disabilities

16 York shall take reasonable steps to communicate with persons with disabilities in ways that take into account their disability and accessibility needs.

16 York shall also ensure that all staff, volunteers, and others dealing with the public on behalf of 16 York are properly trained in how to communicate with visitors with various types of disabilities.

4.2 Assistive Devices

For the purposes of this policy:

“Medical aid” means: An assistive device including respirators and portable oxygen supplies.

“Mobility assistive device” means: A cane, walker or similar aid.

“Personal Assistive Devices” means: Any aids including communication, cognition, personal mobility, medical or technical aids that are used to increase, maintain, or improve the functional abilities of persons with disabilities. Assistive devices include, but are not limited to: wheelchairs, walkers, speech synthesizers, TTYs (Telephone Typewriters or Telephone Teletypes), computer technologies, canes and hearing devices.

16 York is committed to serving people with disabilities, who use assistive devices to obtain, use or benefit from its goods and services.

People with disabilities are permitted and encouraged to use their own personal assistive devices to access our facilities and goods and services. Assistive devices such as communication aids, cognition aids, personal mobility aids and medical aids are allowed to be used at all of our facilities where access is possible at the venue.

16 York will also ensure the public is informed of accessibility features available for their use while at 16 York including elevator and accessible washroom locations.

16 York shall also ensure that staff knows how to use assistive devices that are available to customers of 16 York and where to locate elevators and accessible washrooms within the facility.

16 York shall also ensure that all staff and agents serving the public on behalf of 16 York are properly trained and familiar with various assistive devices that may be used by customers with disabilities while accessing its goods and services.

4.3 Service & Emotional Support Animals

For the purposes of this policy a:

“Guide Dog” means: A guide dog as defined in section 1 of the Blind Persons Rights’ Act.

“Service Animal” means: An animal that is of service to a person with a disability where it is readily apparent that the animal is used by the person for reasons relating to their disability. Verification of a service animal’s status can be provided by way of government certification or by a letter from a physician or nurse confirming the animal is required. It is “readily apparent” that an animal is a service animal when it is obvious by its appearance or by what it is doing. For example, it may be readily apparent that an animal is a service animal if it is wearing a harness, saddles bags, a sign that identifies it as a service animal or has a certificate or identification card from a service animal training school or an identification card from the Attorney General of Ontario. It may also be readily apparent if a person is using the animal to assist them in doing things, such as opening doors or retrieving items.

Emotional support animals may qualify as service animals if they meet Ontario’s criteria (identifiable visual indicators or proper documentation).

The person provides documentation from one of the following regulated health professionals confirming that the person requires the animal for reasons relating to the disability:

- A member of the College of Audiologists and Speech-Language Pathologists of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Chiropractors of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Nurses of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Occupational Therapists of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Optometrists of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Physiotherapists of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Psychologists of Ontario.
- A member of the College of Registered Psychotherapists and Registered Mental Health Therapists of Ontario. O. Reg. 165/16, s. 16.

A visitor to 16 York can be accompanied by their guide dog or other service animal within all areas of 16 York except where areas are restricted to employees or prohibited by law.

Ontario Regulation 562 under the Health Protection and Promotion Act states that animals are not allowed in places where food is manufactured, prepared, processed, handled, served, displayed, stored, sold or offered for sale. It does make an exception for service animals to allow them to go where food is normally served, sold or offered for sale.

There may be rare circumstances where, for the reasons of health and safety of another person, someone with a service animal may be excluded. In these rare situations 16

York's Security Manager shall be immediately notified. The Security Manager shall consider all relevant factors and options in trying to find a solution that meets the needs of both individuals.

4.4 Support Persons

For the purposes of this policy a:

“Support Person” means: Any one person who accompanies a person with a disability in order to help that individual with communication, mobility, personal care or medical needs or with access to goods or services.

A support person may assist a person with a disability in using the washroom or change room or assist a person with speech impairment to facilitate communication. A support person may be a paid professional, a volunteer, a family member or friend of the person with a disability.

At no time shall a person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person be prevented from having access to their support person while on Yonge Corporate Centre premises.

4.5 Notification of Disruptions in Service

Persons with disabilities often rely on specific facilities and services at 16 York and as such, disruption in their operations may negatively affect the customer experience while visiting the centre. Elevators, Personal Elevating Devices, Perimeter Access, Barrier Free Washrooms, Water, and Heating & Air-conditioning are among those services and as such; disruption in their operations must be communicated appropriately.
